Optional Control (If applicable)

Cube

The Infinity-Glow can be controlled by the throw of the soft padded cube, depending on the colour the cube lands on, the Infinity-Glow will transform the infinity effect into that particular colour. If the cube lands on the multi-coloured side, the Infinity-Glow will change into a vibrant, multi-coloured infinity tunnel.

Optional Control (If applicable)

Button Controller

The Infinity-Glow can be easily controlled by pressing the large coloured buttons. Depending on the colour pressed, the Infinity-Glow will transform the infinity effect into that specific colour. Additionally, if the hand button is pressed, the Infinity-Glow will cycle through the modes similar to the options available when pressing the white button on the machine. This intuitive control system allows users to effortlessly customize the Infinity-Glow's appearance and explore its various modes with ease.
